

Annie Leibovitz: The Photographer

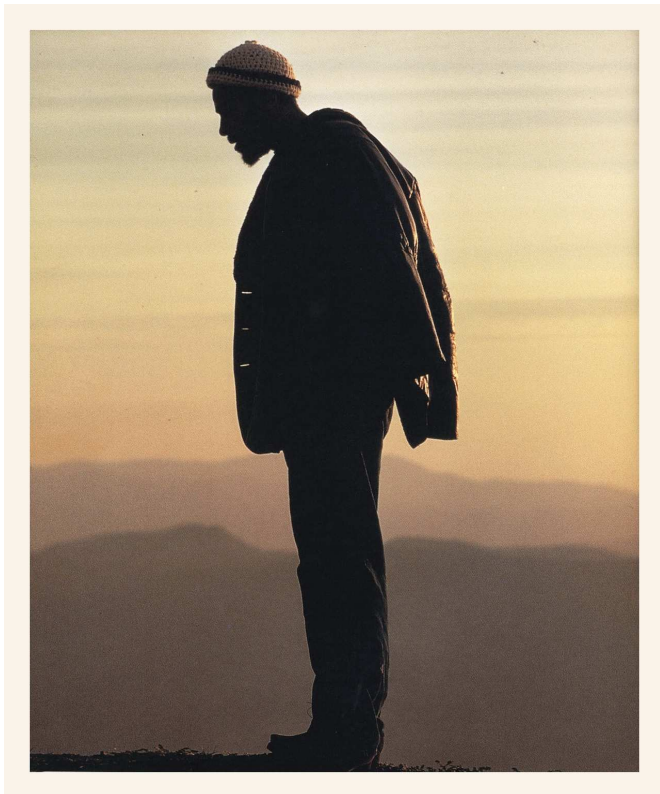

After the viewing the DVD A Life Through a Lens answer the following questions...

1. What is the difference between her commercial and personal photography? See attached
2. How important is her family to her?
3. How do you think she balances her photography and her family?
4. How did her childhood experiences lead her to photography? Explain with specifics.
5. Why are her photographs so distinctive in comparison to other portraitists?
6. What specific qualities of 'art' do you see in her personal work...think of our class discussions about photos and compare her image here to one of your own....see next page for her image
7. After viewing her DVD what is the most distinctive emotion do her images evoke?
8. How does she achieve this emotion artistically?

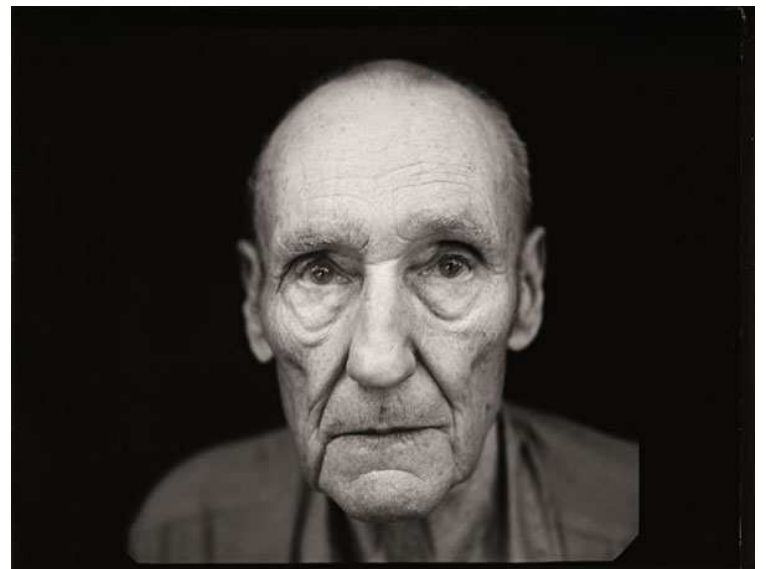

Commercial Work for Disney Fairy Tale series...

Personal Work

Marvin Gaye

William S. Burroughs